Why Sardinia

Sardinia offers some of the most attractive Mediterranean beaches and a magnificent and impressive landscape in its granite interior, excellent seafood and an ancient nuragic culture.

Sardinia is like a continent, but in miniature, shaped by its own language and traditions, its culture and history.

The island gastronomy distinguishes itself for the varieties of pasta and bread, and the assortments of wines and cheese. The mild climate during most of the year allows you to enjoy your events and outdoor activities.

Team Building and Active Event

Sardinia is one of Europe's last great island for adventures: hike through the lush, silent interior to the magical nuragic ruins and walk the vertiginous coastal path to the crescent-shaped bays. The sea is irresistible to windsurfers and divers from the north to the south coasts. Sardinia's nature is the perfect stage for all outdoor activities allowing your team building program to be unique: treasure hunt, pirates, rally, sailing regatta and much more.

Culture and Tradition

Sardinia has an ancient nuragic culture and several Carthaginian and Roman ruins, Pisan churches and Spanish Baroque architecture.

It actually hosts 7000 nuraghi, Bronze Age towers and settlements; tombe dei giganti (giants' tombs), and domus de janas (fairy houses) and a rich variety of museums and permanent exhibitions. Many cultural religious events are experienced on the island all year long.
